REQUEST FOR CONVERSION OF PROVISIONAL TO NONPROVISIONAL APPLICATION
(37 C.F.R. § 1.53(c)(3))

WARNING: Under 35 U.S.C. 154(b), the term of a nonprovisional application resulting from the conversion of a provisional application pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 111(b)(5) will be measured from the original filing date of the provisional application (which is the filing date accorded the nonprovisional application resulting from the conversion). Such patent term implications of converting a provisional application into a nonprovisional application pursuant to 111(b)(5) should be carefully considered against the alternative of simply filing a nonprovisional application within twelve months of the filing date of the provisional application and claiming the benefit of the provisional application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e). Notice of March 10, 2000, 65 Fed Reg 14865, at 148686.

WARNING: A request for conversion must be filed prior to the earliest of: (1) abandonment of the provisional application; or (2) expiration of twelve months after the filing date of the provisional application. 37 CFR 1.53(c). But note, 35 U.S.C. 119(e) provides that "[i]f the day that is 12 months after the filing date of a provisional application falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or Federal Holiday within the District of Columbia, the period of pendency of the provisional application shall be extended to the next succeeding secular or business day."
